

Story 84: Daniel is Taken to Babylon

When the Israelites turned from obeying the One True God, they were defeated by the Babylonians. Daniel, a young Israelite boy, was taken prisoner by the Babylonians. The King of Babylon wanted the best young Israelite boys to work for him in his palace. The king watched Daniel and saw that he had a very good mind. He could do many things well. Daniel loved the One True God and prayed to Him three times every day. God helped Daniel grow stronger. The King of Babylon made Daniel a governor in his kingdom. Because Daniel was an Israelite and the king liked him, some Babylonians became jealous of Daniel. They wanted to make something bad happen to Daniel.

*****

Read about Daniel in the Bible in Daniel 6:1-10.

*****

Words to Know

jealous – upset because someone else has what you want

Questions

1. Who was Daniel?
2. Why did Daniel become a prisoner of the Babylonians?
3. What did the King of Babylon want Daniel to do?
4. What did the King of Babylon learn about Daniel as he watched him?
5. How did Daniel feel about God?
6. How did Daniel show his love for God? How did God show His love for Daniel?
7. What did the King of Babylon do for Daniel?
8. Why were some Babylonians jealous of Daniel? What did they want to do?

When the Israelites turned from obeying the One True God, they were defeated by the Babylonians.

Daniel, a young Israelite boy, was taken prisoner by the Babylonians.

The King of Babylon wanted the best young Israelite boys to work for him in his palace.

The king watched Daniel and saw that he had a very good mind.

He could do many things well.

Daniel loved the One True God and prayed to Him three times every day.

God helped Daniel grow stronger.

The King of Babylon made Daniel a governor in his kingdom.

Because Daniel was an Israelite and the king liked him, some Babylonians became jealous of Daniel.

They wanted to make something bad happen to Daniel.