

Story 15/16: God Chooses Abram

Terah was a man who lived in the city of Ur in the country of Babylon. Terah was a descendant of Noah's son Shem. One day he decided to leave Ur and take his family to a country named Canaan. He took his son Abram, Abram's wife Sarai, and his grandson Lot. But they did not go all the way to Canaan. They stopped at the city of Haran and settled there. While they were living in Haran, God spoke to Abram. Abram loved and obeyed God and did not worship idols. God was happy with Abram's life. Abram was 75 years old when God told him to leave his father's house and go to another country God would show him. God promised to bless Abram in many ways. God said: "You will have many descendants and they will become a great nation. You will become famous and be a blessing to others. Everyone on earth will be blessed because of you." Abram believed God and obeyed him. He took his wife and nephew Lot and left Haran.
