

Story 104: Jesus Came Out of the Grave

Early on Sunday morning some ladies went to the grave of Jesus. It was the third day. Jesus had been crucified on Friday. The ladies were followers of Jesus. Suddenly, the ground shook. The stone rolled away from the doorway of the grave. The women were very afraid. An angel spoke to them. He told them they should not be afraid. He said that Jesus was not in the grave anymore. He had been raised up to life again. The women were happy and excited. They ran back into the city and told all of Jesus' disciples.

Read this story in the Bible in Matthew 28:1-15.
