

Story 118: Paul on Another Missionary Trip

Paul and Barnabas went to many cities to tell people about Jesus. In each city there were people who wanted to follow Jesus. Paul and Barnabas helped the believers in each city to begin meeting together. The group of believers was called a church. After much time, Paul and Barnabas went back to Antioch. They told the people there about everything that had happened. Soon, Paul began a second trip. On the second trip, he took three believers with him. One was a medical doctor named Luke. Another was a man named Silas. The third man's name was Timothy. They did not go to the same cities Paul had visited on his first journey. In one city, Paul and Silas were beaten and put in prison. Heavy pieces of wood were tied to their feet.

Read Acts 16:16-24 to learn why Paul and Silas were put in prison.

Questions

1. What did Paul and Barnabas do to help the believers in the cities they visited?
2. What did they do when they returned to Antioch?
3. Who went with Paul on his second missionary journey?
4. Did they go to the same cities that Paul and Barnabas had visited on their first missionary trip?
5. What happened to Paul and Silas in one city?

After reading Acts 16:16-24, answer the following questions:

6. How did the slave girl make money for her owners?
7. What kind of spirit was in the slave girl? What did the spirit know about Paul?
8. Why did Paul tell the spirit to leave the girl?
9. Why did the girl's owners get angry with Paul?
10. Why were Paul and Silas arrested?

Paul and Barnabas went to many cities to tell people about Jesus.

In each city there were people who wanted to follow Jesus.

Paul and Barnabas helped the believers in each city to begin meeting together.

The group of believers was called a church.

After much time, Paul and Barnabas went back to Antioch.

They told the people there about everything that had happened.

Soon, Paul began a second trip.

On the second trip, he took three believers with him.

One was a medical doctor named Luke.

Another was a man named Silas.

The third man's name was Timothy.

They did not go to the same cities Paul had visited on his first journey.

In one city, Paul and Silas were beaten and put in prison.

Heavy pieces of wood were tied to their feet.