

Story 41: Jacob's Family Moves to Egypt

The famine was not only in Egypt. Joseph's family in Canaan did not have food either. His father, Jacob, sent his 10 oldest sons to Egypt to buy food. When they arrived in Egypt, Joseph's brothers were very surprised to discover that their brother was the governor. They were afraid of Joseph. They were very sorry they had sold him as a slave. But Joseph forgave his brothers. He said, "You tried to hurt me, but God made it work for good, to save you." Joseph gave his brothers food to take to their families in Canaan. Then Joseph invited his father and brothers to move to Egypt to live. Jacob was very excited when he arrived in Egypt and saw his son Joseph alive. Through Joseph, God saved the descendants of Abraham from dying.
