

Story 107: Jesus Sends God the Holy Spirit

Jesus' disciples were praying and waiting in Jerusalem. Suddenly a loud noise was heard. It sounded like a strong wind blowing. Then little things that looked like fire stood over the head of each person in the room. Each person felt like God was there. The disciples began to speak in several different languages. People in the city had heard the noise. They ran to the place where the disciples were praying. Then the disciples began speaking in different languages. There were visitors in Jerusalem from many countries. Each visitor heard about Jesus in his own language.

*****

Read this story in the Bible in Acts 2:1-13.

*****

Words to Know

suddenly – happening quickly or unexpectedly

several – more than two or three different – not like others

Questions

1. What were Jesus' disciples doing in Jerusalem?
2. What was heard?
3. What did it sound like?
4. What stood over the head of each person?
5. What did the people in the room feel?
6. What did the disciples begin to do?
7. Why did the people run to the place where the disciples were?
8. What did they hear when they got there?
9. How did people from many different countries hear about Jesus?

Jesus' disciples were praying and waiting in Jerusalem.

Suddenly a loud noise was heard.

It sounded like a strong wind blowing.

Then little things that looked like fire stood over the head of each person in the room.

Each person felt like God was there.

The disciples began to speak in several different languages.

People in the city had heard the noise.

They ran to the place where the disciples were praying.

Then the disciples began speaking in different languages.

There were visitors in Jerusalem from many countries.

Each visitor heard about Jesus in his own language.