

Story 31: God Chose Rebekah for Isaac

Abraham's servant arrived in Haran, the city where Abraham's relatives lived. He took his camels to the well to get cool water to drink. The servant prayed and asked God to show him the right girl for Isaac to marry. While he was praying, a young girl named Rebekah came to the well to get water. The servant asked her for a drink of water. Rebekah gave him water from her jar. Then she offered to give his camels water also. The servant asked about her family. She told him her grandfather was Nahor, Abraham's brother. Then the servant knew this was the right girl. He thanked God for leading him to Rebekah. He went to Rebekah's home and told her family about Abraham and Isaac. They were very pleased. The next day, Rebekah left her family and went with the servant to Canaan to meet Isaac.

Read this story in the Bible in Genesis 24:10-61

Questions:

1. What did Abraham's servant do to help him find the right girl for Isaac?
2. How did the servant know for sure that Rebekah was the right girl?
3. Why do you think Rebekah was willing to go with the servant to become Isaac's wife?

Abraham's servant arrived in Haran, the city where Abraham's relatives lived.

He took his camels to the well to get cool water to drink.

The servant prayed and asked God to show him the right girl for Isaac to marry.

While he was praying, a young girl named Rebekah came to the well to get water.

The servant asked her for a drink of water.

Rebekah gave him water from her jar.

Then she offered to give his camels water also.

The servant asked about her family.

She told him her grandfather was Nahor, Abraham's brother.

Then the servant knew this was the right girl.

He thanked God for leading him to Rebekah.

He went to Rebekah's home and told her family about Abraham and Isaac. They were very pleased.

The next day, Rebekah left her family and went with the servant to Canaan to meet Isaac.