

Story 94-95: Jesus Fed 5,000 People

Jesus was on a small hill. Thousands of people came to hear Him teach. They listened to Him for many hours. The day was getting late, and the people were hungry. Jesus' disciples asked Him what to do. Jesus told everyone to sit down on the grass. A little boy in the crowd had a basket with five small loaves of bread and two fish. He gave it to Jesus. Jesus took the bread and fish, lifted his eyes toward heaven, and prayed. Then Jesus began breaking the bread and fish into small pieces. His disciples gave the food to the people, and 5,000 people had all they wanted to eat. The people were happy and excited to see what happened. After the people ate, the disciples picked up twelve baskets of leftover food. The people did not understand why Jesus did this miracle. The next day he explained it to them.

*****

Read this story in the Bible in Mark 6:30-44.

*****

Words to Know

crowd – a large number of people

heaven – the place where God lives

excited – showing surprise and emotion

leftover – the unused or uneaten portion of something

miracle – an unusual thing only God can do

explain – to help people understand something

Questions

1. Where was Jesus?
2. Who came to hear him teach?
3. How did the people feel when the day got late?
4. What did Jesus tell the people to do?
5. Who had some bread and fish to eat? What did he do with it?
6. What did Jesus do when the boy gave his food to Him?
7. What did Jesus do with the two fish and five loaves of bread?
8. How many people ate from the boy's lunch that day?
9. How much food was left over?
10. What happened the next day?

Jesus was on a small hill.

Thousands of people came to hear Him teach.

They listened to Him for many hours.

The day was getting late, and the people were hungry.

Jesus' disciples asked Him what to do.

Jesus told everyone to sit down on the grass.

A little boy in the crowd had a basket with five small loaves of bread and two fish.

He gave it to Jesus.

Jesus took the bread and fish, lifted his eyes toward heaven, and prayed.

Then Jesus began breaking the bread and fish into small pieces.

His disciples gave the food to the people, and 5,000 people had all they wanted to eat.

The people were happy and excited to see what happened.

After the people ate, the disciples picked up twelve baskets of leftover food.

The people did not understand why Jesus did this miracle.

The next day he explained it to them.