

Story 115: God Saves Peter

The king in Jerusalem arrested Peter for telling people about Jesus. The king wanted to kill Peter the next day. Peter had to sleep between two soldiers who were guarding him. In the night an angel of God came and woke Peter. The angel took off the chains that were holding Peter. Then the angel opened the gates of the jail so Peter could walk out. None of the soldiers knew that this was happening. The angel left Peter after they had gone outside of the jail. Then Peter went and told the believers who were praying for him. The believers were very excited and happy. They thanked God.

*****

Read this story in the Bible in Acts 12:1 - 19.

*****

Words to Know

arrested – put in jail or prison

chains – metal links joined together

Questions

1. Why did the king arrest Peter?
2. What did the king plan to do with Peter?
3. Where did Peter sleep?
4. Who woke up Peter in the night?
5. What two things did the angel do so Peter could walk out of jail?
6. Why do you think the soldiers did not know what was happening?
7. What happened when the angel and Peter were outside of the jail?
8. What did Peter do after the angel left?
9. The believers were praying for Peter. What do you think they were praying? How did God answer their prayers?
10. How did the believers feel about God's answer to their prayers?

The king in Jerusalem arrested Peter for telling people about Jesus.

The king wanted to kill Peter the next day.

Peter had to sleep between two soldiers who were guarding him.

In the night an angel of God came and woke Peter.

The angel took off the chains that were holding Peter.

Then the angel opened the gates of the jail so Peter could walk out.

None of the soldiers knew that this was happening.

The angel left Peter after they had gone outside of the jail.

Then Peter went and told the believers who were praying for him.

The believers were very excited and happy. They thanked God.